ANOTATION

The structure and scope of work. Explanatory note of the diploma project consists of five chapters, contains 65 pages, 7 figures, 16 tables, 1 application, 8 sources.

Diploma project dedicated to the development of web-system for supporting tourism activity to simplify search of interesting tourist sites.

In the section of information support was defined incoming and outgoing data for the system.

In the software section were described the main tools of web-systems development, set requirements for technical support, selected and justified software architecture.

In technological section is described the user manual and provided testing of the system.

CSS, HTML, MVC, ПІП, ID, NPM, СУБД